

This is the door which we use to enter the church. It is known as the South Door. There is one step down into the porch. We have a ramp if required.

When you open the Porch door this is the view. Be careful - there are two steps down from the Porch into the Church. We have a ramp if required.

This is the view from the South Door looking out to the Churchyard. It shows the two steps as you enter.

On the right hand side as you enter the church are the hymn books and where Service Sheets will be on a Sunday.

This is the front of the Church where we gather to take communion. Some choose to kneel while others stand. Please be careful of the step.

This is the Dacre Capel. There are two steps as shown. Most people come back through this gap after receiving communion. We have the 8am service in this area.
